Evening Katie,

It was good to meet with you again on Friday. The meeting was very useful. As discussed, we will get the full pack of information to you asap, noting your 2 week Inquiry at the end of April.

I thought it might be useful to forward the United Nation's Inter-Governmental Panel on Climate Change report now, whilst it is fresh in our minds and still in the news. The report is a significant material consideration – arguably the most significant - which was unavailable to you and Charles when drafting your report. The link provides the report, headlines, press release, presentation and summary for policy makers.

I also attach a link to a BBC news article run last Monday on the IPCC report. The IPCC report was the lead story on many news outlets last week. A quick search of Youtube, will bring up many articles, including ITV, Sky and Channel 4. I can forward should you wish.

I will forward the agreed information asap, but please let me know if you have any queries in the meantime.
